FROM

R. BOCQUET, ESQUIRE, J. P.,
CHIEF INSPECTOR OF MINES IN MYSORE.

B. Srinivasa Iyengar, Esq., B.A., B.L.,
Financial Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, BANGALORE.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that in accordance with Rule 6 (1) Mysore State Life Insurance Rules, insurance shall be compulsory on all persons who enter the permanent pensionable service under Government from the date of such entry.

Accordingly, all the members of the ministerial establishment of this office have insured their lives as required by the rules. But the members of the menial establishment, although their pay is above Rs.10/-, viz: Rs.11/- and therefore eligible for insurance, have not complied with this rule. They represent that they are unable to effect insurance with their slender means and resources - insufficient to cover current expenses in view of the costliness of living, etc. - and that they would be put to much hardship if insurance is insisted on in their case.

Under these circumstances, I request that the menials of this office may be exempted from compulsory life insurance as are those in the office of the Director of Geology in Mysore (vide Government Order No.Fl.1720-2/G.F. 45-24-4 dated 22nd September 1924).

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

R. Bocquet.

CHIEF INSPECTOR OF MINES
IN MYSORE.
